Where were you born?

- I was born in Merida, Venezuela.

Where were you raised?

- After coming to the U.S when I was two I moved around a lot. I lived in Boston until I was 8 then moved to New York. I only lived there for two years before moving to Florida in the fifth grade.

What was your favorite year of high school? Why?

- I would definitely have to say this year, my senior year!! It's the time when you celebrate your accomplishments and look back at all the hard work you put in to get where you are now. We have so much to look forward to senior year, prom, grad bash, and most important, graduation.

What is one thing that you will miss about high school?

- My friends! =(Through my high school years I have made incredible friends that in one way or another have made such an impact on my life. We have gone through so much in high school together and it's sad that we're all going our separate ways but, I hope our friendships last a lifetime.

What have you done that has made an impact on Monarch High School?

- I take pride in my school and try to get involved as much as I can. I have participated in many events to help raise money for our class and I've always had school spirit.

What are your plans after graduation?

- I have been accepted to the University of Miami class of 2014 where I plan to graduate from the nursing program as a pediatric nurse.

List ONE word that describes you best: - REAL!

Why do you think you should be king/queen?

- The prom queen has often been perceived as a straight-up popularity contest, whose only purpose is to confirm a girl's ranking status at school. But I'm sick of the stereotypically pretty, popular, girl who everyone expects to win. I think for a change it's someone else's turn and I truly believe I should be the class of 2010 Prom Queen.

Where is the most unusual place you would wear your crown?

- Hmm well if I was to win I probably would wear it every where LOL. I wouldn't want to take it off =)

If you could bring any famous person to prom (not a student), whom would you bring?

- Oh that's easy Channing Tatum! He's gorgeous and he can dance ;-)

FAST FORWARD!!!

What will you be doing in FIVE years?

- In five years I hope to graduate from UM's nursing program and receive my B.S.N in pediatric nursing.

What will you be doing in TEN years?

- In ten years I hope to further my career, maybe have my own pediatric doctor's office. Also I hope to start a family of my own.
