

Chapter 14

1. What is stress and what events tend to provoke stress responses?
2. To what extent does stress contribute to coronary heart disease and other diseases and why are some people more prone to this than others?
3. What strategies can we use to reduce stress related ailments?