

Chapter 4 Reflection

In chapter 4 we discussed the various states of consciousness, sleep and dreams, hypnosis, and drugs and their effects. For your reflection please discuss the information from both lecture and your readings. Give examples from your life to help illustrate your understanding of the material.

Please make sure that you include a cover page, abstract and the reflection is at least two and a half pages long.