

Chapter 5 Reflection

In this chapter we covered the basic theories and research on learning. For this reflection, I would like you to discuss how each of these has played a role in your development. Please make sure that you are giving specific examples to illustrate your understanding of the material. As always, please include a title page and abstract. Your reflection should be a minimum of two and a half pages in length.