

View our Catalog
Join our e-Newsletter
TEACHER RESOURCES
WORKSHOPS
HIP-HOP
ABOUT US
LANGUAGE ARTS
SOCIAL STUDIES
MATH | SCIENCE

Learn 26 SAT Vocab words with this Free Flocabulary track.

Learning the words is as easy as memorizing this short song!

"Truly Amazing!"

- NY1

POP, CRACKLE AND SNAP
Download this song for free \(mp3\)

Lyrics

Yeah, check it out...
 Pop, crackle, snap
 like an elastic,
 I rock raps ebulliently,
 enthusiastically.
 I spit words with
 eagerness and alacrity.
 sip on my rhymes like a
 virgin daiquiri.
 I'm glad to be me,
 I'm elated, exultant.
 The sovereign of the land,
 I rule it like the sultan.
 Call me Emcee Escher the
 fresh alchemist,
 I change and transmute to gold like
 King Midas,
 Turn archaic, old beats into new
 ones,
 I turn an old mattress into
 fancy futons.
 I have a big capacious kitchen,
 make my own croutons,
 I make them infinitesimal,
 smaller than neutrons.
 Try to recycle my rhymes like a can,
 I'll discomfit you, thwart your plans.
 Advanced and precocious like
 Becky, my cousin,
 age nine she read Dostoyevsky...
 in Russian: Crime and Punishment,
Notes from the Underground.
 She's virtuosic, very talented now...

*Ow, everybody,
 Mind to body*

Now I want every rap I rap to be a
rhapsody,

Definitions

ebullient (adj.) zestfully enthusiastic

alacrity (n.) cheerful eagerness

exultant (adj.) elated, joyful, triumphant

sovereign (n.) a
 ruler with complete authority

sultan (n.) – a ruler of a Muslim country, or a powerful person

alchemist (n.) – a (medieval) pseudo-scientist
 who tries to turn common objects into gold

transmute (v.) – to transform or change from one form to another

archaic (adj.) – old and no longer useful,
 antiquated

capacious (adj.) – spacious, roomy

infinitesimal (adj.) – very small, immeasurably
 minute

discomfit (v.) – to thwart the plans of, or frustrate

precocious (adj.) – smart beyond one's years,
 showing impressive early intelligence

virtuosic (adj.) – possessing great talent, often artistic (from the noun form virtuoso)

rhapsody (n.) – very enthusiastic expression of

very impassioned, writ enthusiastically.
I stand strong, resolute, firm and determined,
to exterminate these squirming worms and the vermin.
I have an amazing level of perspicacity,
the capacity to see things perceptively.
I'll even rhyme with words that don't rhyme like orange.
Never boring... um...
I'll swing back like the door-hinge.
I could be ridiculous like ludicrous,
delightful and apt, felicitous.
If it stinks then it's fetid,
but we hot we never tepid,
I just said it don't forget it,
let it in and then it's netted.
It's nuts! Allergic to nuts? What you gonna do?
Eschew cashews, dude, avoid 'em like the flu.
Who wish ill will? who cast aspersions?
My words more incisive than incisions of a surgeon.

feeling in speech, writing or music
resolute (adj.) – firm, determined vermin (n.) – annoying insects or rodents perspicacity (n.) – the ability to perceive clearly capacity (n.) – ability
ludicrous (adj.) – ridiculous, laughably absurd
felicitous (adj.) – apt and appropriate, or delightful
fetid (adj.) – stinky, having a bad odor
tepid (adj.) – lukewarm, neither hot nor cold eschew (v.) – to avoid aspersion (n.) – a negative remark
incisive (adj.) – penetrating, clear, sharp
incision (n.) – a cut into the body, especially during surgery

Listen to more samples
or Order our SAT Vocabulary CD + Book

CONTACT US | 877.473.3077 | PRESS | FIND YOUR REP | PRIVACY POLICY | HOME