

Rubric for Short & Extended Response Questions

Short Response Questions

2 points

- The response indicates that the student has a complete understanding of the reading concept embodied in the task
- The student has provided a response that is accurate, complete, and fulfills all the requirements of the task.
- Necessary support and/or examples are included, and the information given is clearly text-based.

1 point

- The response indicates that the student has a partial understanding of the reading concept embodied in the task.
- The student has provided a response that includes information that essentially correct and text-based, but the information is too general or too simplistic.
- Some of the support and/or examples may be incomplete or omitted.

0 points

- The response indicates that the student does not demonstrate an understanding of the reading concept embodied in the task.
- The student has provided a response that is inaccurate; the response has an insufficient amount of information to determine the student's understanding of the task; or the student has failed to respond to the task.

Extended Response Questions

■ 4 points

- Respond to the question using specific information and examples from the text
- Elaboration is important
- Student has thorough understanding of the reading concept that the task requires

■ 3 points

- Student has understanding of the reading concept that the task requires

Rubric for Short & Extended Response Questions

■ Response is accurate but support and details are not complete or clearly text-based

■ 2 points

■ Student has partial understanding of the reading concept that the task requires

■ Response is accurate but support and details are text-based but too general or simplistic

■ Some of the support and/or examples and requirements of the task may be incomplete or omitted.

■ 1 point

■ Student has very limited understanding of the reading concept in the task

■ The response is inaccurate

■ The response has insufficient information to determine the student's understanding of the task

■ The student has failed to respond to the task

■ 0 points

■ Student does not demonstrate an understanding of the reading concept in the task

■ Student has provided a response that is inaccurate

■ The response has insufficient information to determine the student's understanding of the task

■ The student has failed to respond to the task