

CREATIVE NOVEL PROJECT CHOICES

Choose Two

Directions: Choose two of the following topics to write about. This assignment should be neatly handwritten in at least 150 words each.

- 1. Character Reaction: “I like/dislike this character because...” Give several specific reasons of what the character does or says that justifies your position.
- 2. Put Yourself in the Character’s Shoes: If I were this character, I would have...” Give specific actions you would have taken as opposed to the actions the character actually took and give specific reasons.
- 3. Character Comparison: Compare/Contrast one of the main characters in the novel with someone you really know. Use specific examples about actions, personality, likes/dislikes, etc.
- 4. Alternative Ending: Write an alternative ending for your novel.
- 5. Meaningful Quotations: Quote 2 – 3 passages from the novel that show the essence or theme of the novel. Explain what makes those quotations/passages so important.
- 6. Guess Who’s Coming to Dinner: Invite one of the characters in your novel to dinner. Describe this character and explain why you would invite this character. Include what you might eat and why.
- 7. I’m Ready for My Close-up, Mr. Director: You are the director in charge of filming the novel. Assign specific actors you would choose for specific roles, explain where you would film the novel, and explain your reasoning.
- 8. Change the Setting: Describe what would happen if you change the setting of the novel. Would the characters change? Would the plot have to change? Be specific.
